NOTES...

As the calendar turns to August, we're gearing up for a busy end of summer/fall season on the course! Lots of member events on the upcoming schedule as well as charity outings.

The sign up sheet is now available for the Men's Club Championship, which will be held August 30-31. There's a flight for all skill levels, so come test your game against your fellow LCC members!. Call the golf shop to sign up today!

The Team Match Play Championship is entering the stretch run, with the finals set for the weekend of September 27-28. For those teams that are left competing, please complete your matches during the dates allotted for each round so we can stay on schedule.

As noted in the July Newsletter, our Super Senior (age 65+) Carolinas Interclub team won their pod and advanced to the playoffs. This is quite an accomplishment as the season began with 355 teams competing in three divisions. Their first playoff match is against Cabarrus CC on Wednesday, August 13. Play well gentlemen!
